If restitution was ordered in this case, the clerk's office will forward restitution payments to you, which are paid by the defendant. Your address is public information in the court's file. Sexual assault cases are closed to the public, however, the defendant or the defendant's attorney still has access to the court file. Should your address change, please contact the clerk's collections office. A probation or parole officer, depending on the defendant's sentence, sets up a payment plan for paying the restitution. If the defendant in this case was sentenced to Probation and you would like to speak to the person who is supervising the defendant on probation, please call (719) 452-5783.

If the defendant has been sentenced to Probation, Jail, Community Corrections, or Department of Corrections, a form is included with this letter. If you would like to continue to be notified of any change of status of the defendant, please complete the form and send it to the address indicated on the form.

Since some of the abbreviations indicated above may not be familiar to you, please contact me with questions about these abbreviations or any other questions you may have regarding the defendant's re-sentencing.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO KEEP THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE UPDATED OF ANY CHANGE OF ADDRESS AND/OR PHONE NUMBER TO CONTINUE TO BE NOTIFIED OF UPCOMING COURT DATES.
